APPLICATION FORM

The Wessel Service-to-Scholar Scholarship for Student Veterans

Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University
Daytona Beach, FL 32118

Deadline for Submission: December 3, 2015
Notification of Award: December 15, 2015

Introduction: The Wessel Service-to-Scholar Scholarship in the amount of $1500.00 is available exclusively to student veterans enrolled at the Daytona Beach, Florida campus of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, who have registered for study in a foreign country during either Summer Term A or Summer Term B. Awarding of this scholarship is decided by a committee of ERAU faculty and is based upon academic merit and scholarly promise as determined by the application essay and by the information provided by the applicant.

Instructions: Please provide typed responses for the information requested in this application form. The required essay should be typed and submitted as a separate document in .doc format. Both the application form and the required essay should be emailed as attachments in a single email to Professor M.B. McLatchey @ mclatchm@erau.edu. For questions, contact Professor M.B. McLatchey by email.

Student Name: ________________________________  Student Number:__________________
Major/Minor at ERAU _________________________________ GPA: __________

Term & Name of Program: SUMMER A __ SUMMER B__ Program?_______________________________

REQUIRED ESSAY (500 words maximum): The essay requirement is an opportunity to tell your story.

In a brief essay, address some or all of the following questions: If you did travel abroad as part of your military service, how do you anticipate that studying abroad as a student will differ from experiences you had while traveling in a military capacity? What plans do you have regarding how you might use this opportunity to travel & study abroad? Why did you select this particular program of study abroad?