All international students who will require an I-20 or DS-2019 form must complete parts III, IV, and V below.

The University requires documentation certifying the validity of the financial resources listed on this sheet. Students must show proof of financial ability to cover all expenses. Please see the estimated cost below.

All documentation must be dated within six months of the start date of the semester for which the student is applying. The only exception will be tax returns which must be from the previous year which the student is applying. Students may also combine sources or have more than one sponsor. All documentation must be in U.S. dollar amount.

I. ESTIMATED COST – ACADEMIC YEAR (AUGUST – MAY)

The estimated annual cost for the 2019-2020 academic year is as follows:

Undergraduate

Tuition (12-16 credits) and Fees $37,018
 Room and Board.....$11,746
 Books (estimated).....$1,400
Total $50,164

Graduate (Masters and Ph.D)

Tuition (6 credits) and Fees.....$19,156
 Room and Board.....$11,746
 Books (estimated)..... $1,400
Total..... $32,302

NOTE: Flight Students require additional funds:

Flight students can estimate average annual costs for the first and second year at approximately $23,000-$33,000 (depending on when the student engages in multi-engine training). The average cost for the third year of instruction is $10,000-$15,000. Please take into consideration that prices will vary per student since no two students learn at the same rate.

Fees do not include health insurance. The estimated cost for health insurance is approximately $1,248. All registered students must have health insurance. Enrollment is automatic; your student account will be charged the insurance fee. If you already have insurance, you may waive out of the student plan.

The above example is for planning purposes only. Official bills for tuition and fees will be presented after registration. Some courses require additional fees. The University reserves the right to change any of the above expenses without prior notification.
